Introducing the Judge – John Bailly

John Bailly is a Fellow in the Honors College of Florida International University where he founded and directs the Aesthetics & Values Exhibition - a program that has earned national recognition. Bailly's Aesthetics & Values seminar teaches students about the role art played and plays in the social and cultural events in history and our daily lives. He lectures and teaches workshops at universities across the United States.

John Bailly is an artist receiving his MFA in painting and printmaking from Yale University in 1983. His work explores the random nature of information and the manner in which we process it. Utilizing juxtapositions of diverse data and multiple historical references, Bailly's work intends for us to reflect on the manner in which we conceptualize our realities.

He has served as Judge for a wide variety of exhibitions, including the Coconut Grove Arts Festival. In 2007, he was a member of the State of Florida Individual Artist Grant Review Panel. Since 2009, he has served on the Teen Miami Advisory Council of the Historical Museum of Southern Florida.
